

Workshop Origins of Socioeconomic Inequalities

Luxembourg, May 15-16, 2025

Call for Papers

We invite paper submissions for a workshop on the Origins of Socioeconomic Inequalities, to be held at the Kirchberg Campus of the University of Luxembourg. This workshop aims to bring together researchers to explore the latest developments and insights on the factors that drive socioeconomic disparities from distinct perspectives. We aim to build a comprehensive understanding of how inequalities emerge and are sustained across generations.

The workshop will cover a range of key drivers of socioeconomic inequalities, including:

- Genes and Environment
- Assortative Mating
- Firms and Labor Markets
- Schools and Neighborhoods
- Intergenerational Transmission

We welcome submissions that address these themes or other relevant aspects of socioeconomic inequality and mobility.

The workshop is part the ORIGINS project supported by the Luxembourg National Research Fund (FNR) C21/SC/15771764. Learn more about the ORIGINS project.

Keynote Speakers

Stephanie von Hinke (University of Bristol), Erik Plug (University of Amsterdam), Jan Stuhler (Universidad Carlos III de Madrid).

Submissions

Interested researchers are invited to submit a complete paper as pdf using the following email address: origins2025@uni.lu. The deadline for submission is 31 January 2025. There are no registration fees. Accommodation will be provided for presenters for up to two nights.

Participating Institutions

University of Luxembourg, Luxembourg Institute of Socio-Economic Research (LISER) and The Danish Center for Social Science Research (VIVE).

Organizers

Paul Bingley (VIVE), Lorenzo Cappellari (Catholic University of Milan and LISER), Konstantinos Tatsiramos (University of Luxembourg).