Call for Papers

The Department of Business and Economics of the Parthenope University of Naples and the University of Leicester School of Business organize the “6th workshop on the Economics of Organized Crime”.

The keynote speaker is Giovanni Mastrobuoni (Collegio Carlo Alberto and University of Turin).

The workshop will serve as a forum to present current research investigating the origin, impact and functioning of organized crime. It will be an opportunity to bring together young and senior economists to present their ongoing research. Previous editions were held in Milan, Bogota, Bergamo, Glasgow, and York.

The financial support of the British Academy is gratefully acknowledged.

Submission

Both theoretical and empirical studies are welcome.
